

Policy Statement: Massage Therapist Performance of Electrical Stimulation, Diathermy, or Therapeutic Ultrasound

Adopted June 13, 2018

A person who holds a massage therapy license may provide therapeutic ultrasound, diathermy, or electrical neuromuscular stimulation services when acting as an unlicensed person performing the service under the supervision of a person acting within the scope of their professional license. The person who holds the massage therapy license should not be identified as a massage therapist when doing so and the service should not be held out to be massage therapy.
